Editor's Message

Holmes Junior College and Agricultural High School has the primary function of turning out well-rounded individuals. Opportunities are available here to young men and women, as well as to boys and girls regardless of their interests or abilities. The Traditions are being carried out even more fully, thanks to a spacious and fully equipped educational plant and a new cafeteria which will be completed this fall.

Within these walls the normal routine of college and high school life is carried on from day to day. We are given the opportunity to prepare ourselves in different fields. Learning is a complicated process involving long hours of study, preparation, experimentation and research, but easing the way for us is a patient, understanding, competent, and co-operative faculty.

There are numerous clubs, organizations and activities suited to our individual desires as well as the athletic program which is growing with leaps and bounds each season thanks to an outstanding coaching staff.

This past year has been a memorable, enjoyable, and short one, especially for those of us who are sophomores and high school seniors. We have tried to capture in pictures as many scenes, situations and activities as possible. We probably have not recorded everything but it is not because we have not tried. We hope that you, the reader, will find something of personal interest. We sincerely hope that this edition of The Horizons will bring back memories as you thumb through its pages in years to come. This book is you; it is yours; you are the principal character because you helped make it.

So now turn the pages and follow life at HJC and AHS during the year 1962-63.

Dedication

Gratitude and devotion have motivated us to extend our deep appreciation to one who has served us all since 1937.

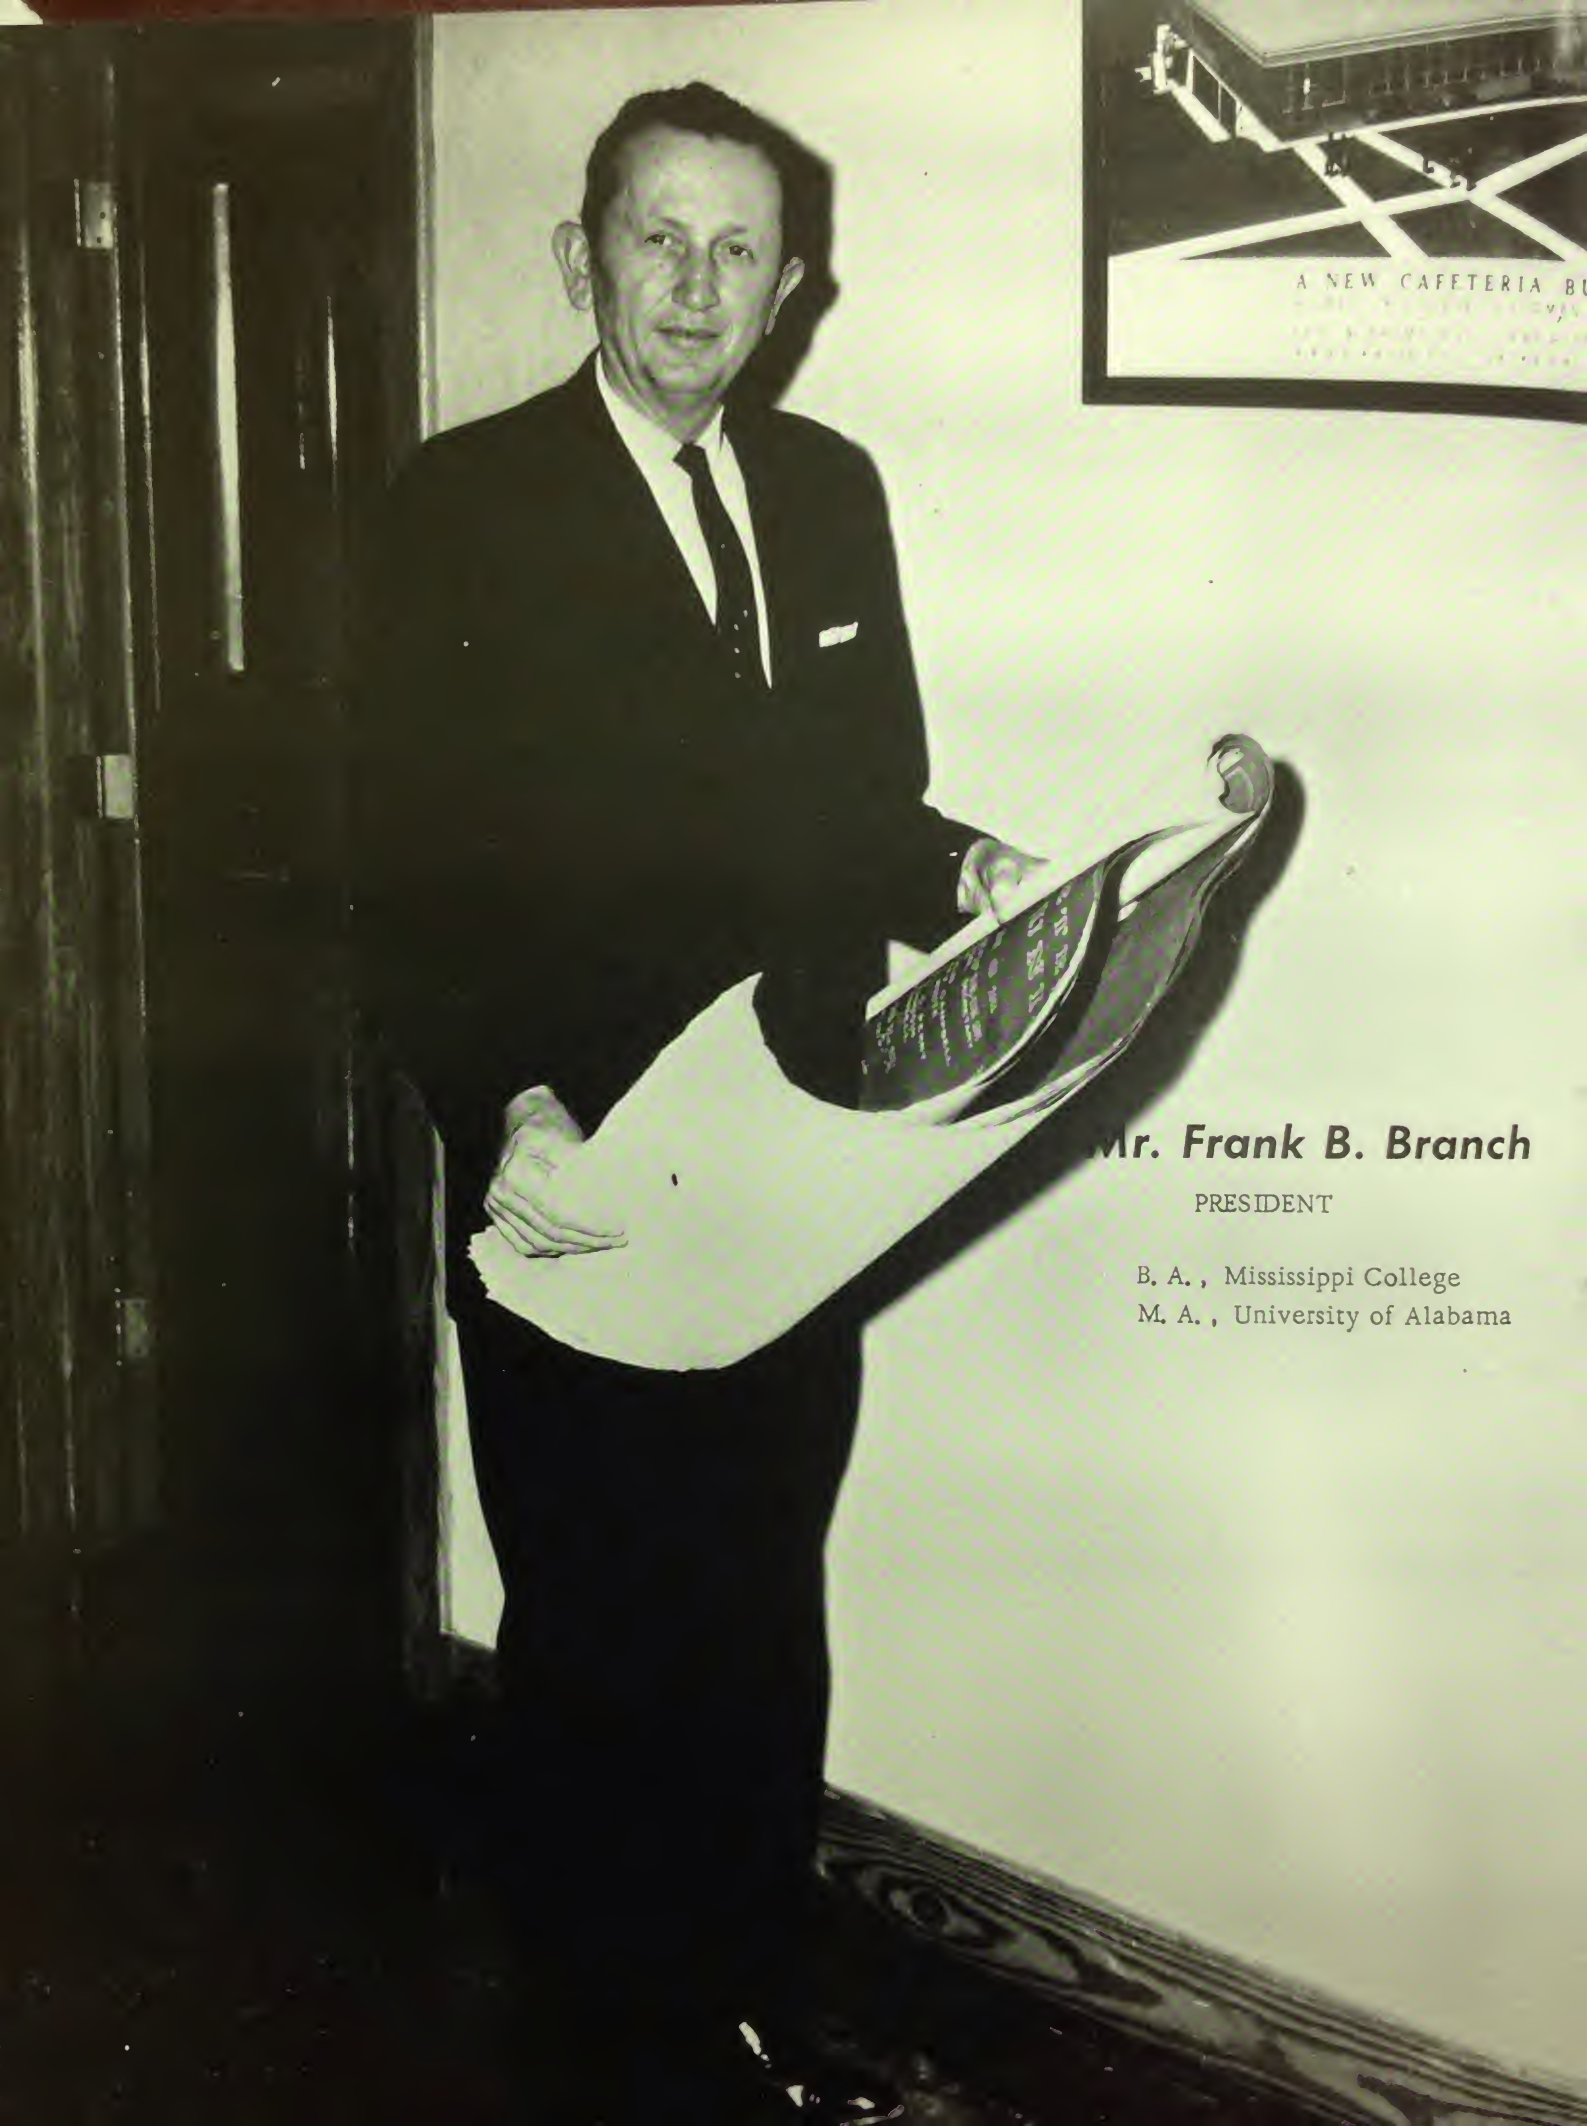

As Business Manager and one of the outstanding teachers of our college, he has pursued a course of action which has contributed to the betterment of our college.

To one whose strength of character and awareness of mind have given us hope of future greatness for Holmes Junior College and Holmes Agricultural High School, we dedicate the Horizons to MR. STANLEY F. ALLEN, a friend to each one of us.

WHITE HOUSE

Mr. Frank B. Branch

PRESIDENT

B. A. , Mississippi College

M. A. , University of Alabama

President Frank B. Branch, who is in his 27th year here at our institution and his seventh as the leader of the school on the hill, has had a strong hand in the affairs of Holmes Junior College.

Under his direction the school system has expanded into a modern educational unit which is rated among the finest.

Mr. Branch has coached football, basketball, and track having had some of the greatest grid and cage junior college teams to come out of the state.

Under his leadership the quality of the faculty has improved, tenure has been established, and an atmosphere of learning has been attained.

Mr. Branch has the well-rounded viewpoint necessary for successful administrative direction for a group of young men and women.

His faith in the students and his unending efforts for the advancement of the college have made him irreplaceable in the growth and development of Holmes Junior College.

STUDENT CENTER

STUDENT LIFE

Yes, Holmes Jr. does have its college beauties.

Freshman Day

Teahouse of the August Rebel.

No, your husband ain't in.

You are not supposed to eat the candy.

Archie,
What went on in your classroom?

Which one do you think won the prize?

Waiting in line was never so enjoyable.

Hey, boys, we're ready for our dates.

Don't ask me, I only go to school here.

Into your cells.

Who's the lucky one?

Just because you're the most beautiful doesn't mean you can sleep in class.

Me in the movies?

The Owens' clan at the reception.

Country fair leg work.

Is that a boy peeking through the window?

Ain't this awful?

Where's the bunny rabbit?

Dig that crazy chick.

Smile! You're on Candid Camera.

And you ask if we're tired.

It's a man even if it is a dog.

Goodie night at Holmes.

A few of the inmates.

Christmas parade at Greenwood.

Go go go!

Opening night.

Fidel Castro and friends.

That's right funny.

Stood up.

Summary

At the beginning of the season Holmes and Jones Junior were rated as co-favorites for the Miss. JC grid title, but the dopesters missed and the Bulldogs ended in a three-way tie for third with Co-Lin and Pearl River. Miss. Delta took the championship with Perkinson and East Miss. tied for second.

Actually out of the four defeats only the season's opener with Perkinson proved to be a team let-down as the Bulldogs could have easily ended with a 9-1 mark.

An unpredictable defense throughout paved the way for several losses as the offensive unit averaged right at three touchdowns per game.

At the season's end Quarterback Charles Myers and Tackle Alan Wallace were named to the first team All-State squad with Fullback Charles McCluskey, Tackle Charlie Peebles and End Johnny Vaughn making the honorable mention list.

Myers capped things off with an honorable mention All-American berth and a scholarship to Ole Miss.

Summary

The two good things that Holmes had going for them at the start of the season was a good defense and rebound power.

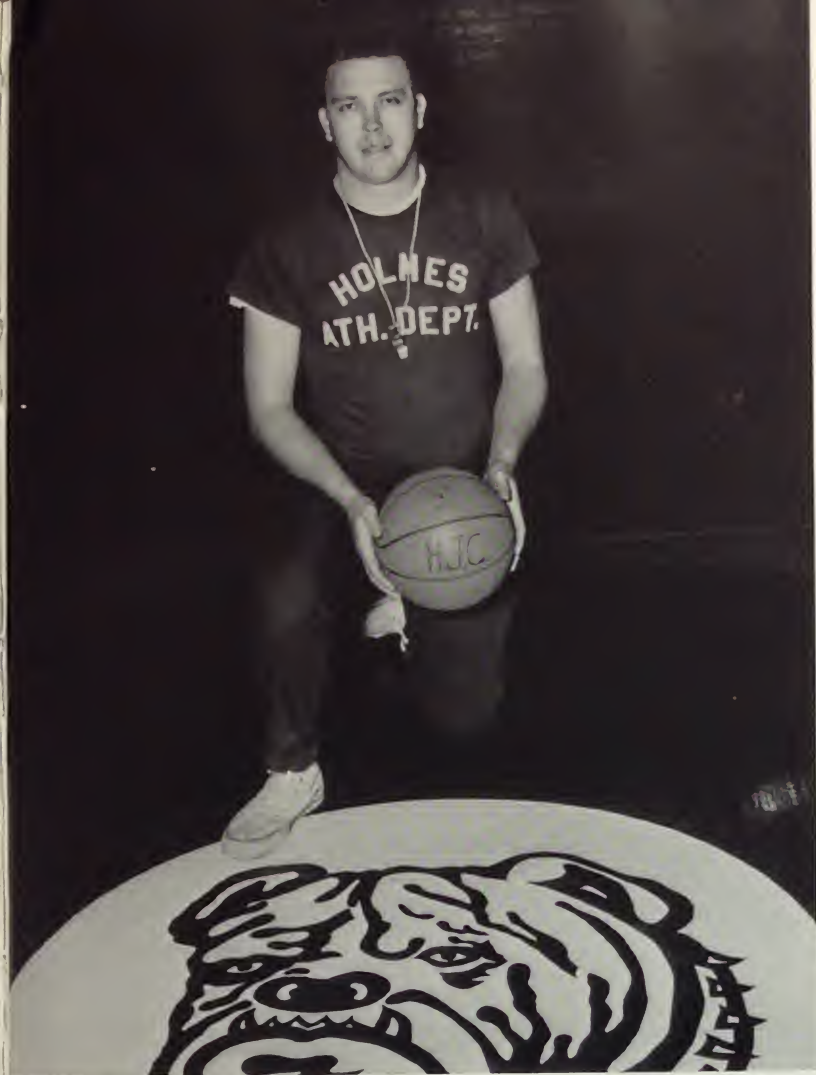

Only 6 - 3 1/2 Bill Bailey was a returning letterman and he was badly missed during the last nine games when he went out of action due to a back injury.

Jamie Howell's first year as coach here was a success despite the final 10-18 showing and the Bulldogs seemed to play their best games in tournament action.

Howell's crew were named co-champions of the Itawamba Holiday Tournament with Miss. Delta and Itawamba and then made it all the way to the semi-finals of the North Division Junior College tourney before falling to powerful East Central who hit better than 50 percent of their shots from the floor.

Another highlight was Forward Bobby Heath of Duck Hill who made honorable mention all-state.

Five men will depart including Bailey, Heath, Jimmy Hutchinson, Jackie Nicholson and Pete Aldy, but eight freshmen return to give Howell a bright outlook next season.

Did you see the look in her eyes?

Seems like everybody's here.

You come near my Yoby and I'll kill ya.

It is Santa Claus.

IN RETROSPECT

I don't know. What are you doing out here?

Yes, I am the only freshman enrolled.

No, you can't come in.

Bet'cha he can't lift it.

The Clan on the hill.

I didn't wear my shorts.
